Dear Supervisor Kniss,

It has come to my attention that two lunches paid for by Supervisor George Shirakawa that I attended were borne by the taxpayers. Enclosed is a check for $70.00 which far exceeds my portion of those lunches.

Though I had no knowledge the expenditure was being paid for by the taxpayers, I believe returning the money to the County is the morally right thing to do. During my tenure in government; at the federal, state and local level--I have always been an advocate of responsible spending of taxpayer money.

My lunches with Supervisor Shirakawa do not rise to the level of an appropriate public expenditure in my opinion.

I am sending this money in care of your office because you are my representative on the Board of Supervisors. I trust it will get to the appropriate department.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Rich Robinson

Dear Mr. Sharma:

Please find enclosed a check in the amount of $33.00 for my share of a dinner which took place on February 17, 2012. It has come to my attention that this dinner was paid for with a Santa Clara County credit card, and this amount should cover my share.

Mr. Sharma:

Recently, it has come to my attention that a dinner, which took place on February 9th of this year after the State of the City Address, was paid for with a Santa Clara County credit card. Please find enclosed a check for $400.00 which should more than cover the cost of the dinner for myself and the other SJPD chief officers who were present.
